REPORT

OF THE

COMMISSIONERS OF CHURCH TEMPORALITIES

IN IRELAND,

FOR THE YEAR 1878.

TO HIS GRACE THE MOST NOBLE JOHN, DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH, K.G., LORD LIGHTENHARD-GENERAL AND CHIEF GOVERNOR OF IRELAND, &c.

WE, The Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland, beg to submit to your Grace our Report for the year 1878.

The proceedings of the year are classified under the following heads :—

- I. Sale of Tenanted Lands, &c.
 - (a.) Yearly and other tenures, and terminable leaseholds.
 - (b.) Perpetuity rents.
 - (c.) Renewable leaseholds.
- II. Sale of Untenanted Lands, &c.
 - (a.) See-houses, globe-houses, and mensal lands sold to the Representative Church Body.
 - (b.) Sale of residues of mensal lands excluded from sales to the Representative Church Body.
- III. Sale and Conversion of Tithe rent-charge.
- IV. Collection of Revenue and Purchase-money.
- V. Payment of Annuitants.
- VI. Discharge of Liabilities.
- VII. Miscellaneous.

I.—SALE OF TENANTED LANDS, &c.

(a.) Yearly and other Tenures and terminable Leaseholds—Sales to Tenants.

During the past year 380 holdings were sold to the tenants in possession. The annual rent of these holdings was £3,971, and the purchase-money £78,123. The average rate of purchase, excluding five holdings held by copyhold tenure, of which annual rents were £14 10s. 6d. and purchase-money £6,736, was $23\frac{1}{2}$ times the rent. Twelve stipends and chief rents formerly payable to the clergy and vested in us by "The Irish Church Act, 1869," were sold. Annual amount, £109. Purchase-money, £2,568.	Land let to tenants. Yearly tenures, &c. Sales to tenants.
--	---

The 380 tenants who became purchasers during the past year, added to the 5,243 returned as purchasers in our last report, make up a total of 5,623 tenants who have bought their holdings.

We continue to receive reports of improvements effected on their lands by the new owners, and another year's experience confirms the opinion which we have already recorded as to the beneficial results of the provisions in the Irish Church Act for creating a body of small proprietors.

Improvements by new owners.

Yearly and other Tenures, &c.—Sales to the Public.

Yearly
tenures,
&c.— Sales to the public.

Five hundred and two holdings of tenants who did not avail themselves of their right of purchase were sold to the public. The rent of these holdings was £4,667; the amount of purchase-money, £98,606. The rate of purchase was $21\frac{1}{2}$ times the rent.

Holdings
unsold.

There remained at the beginning of this year 650 holdings still to be sold.

Perpetuity
rents.

(b.) Perpetuity Rents.—Sales to Owners.

Sales to owners.

One hundred and ninety-three Perpetuity Rents were sold to the owners of the lands out of which the rents issued. Annual amount, £10,502 17s. 3d. Purchase-money, £262,571 11s. 9d., the rate of purchase being 25 times the annual value as fixed by the 34th section of "The Irish Church Act, 1869."

Perpetuity
rents.

Perpetuity Rents.—Sales to the Public.

Sales to the public.

During the past year we offered for sale to the public all the unsold Perpetuity Rents at a price not less than twenty-five years purchase of their annual amount, the result being that 25 Perpetuity Rents were sold to 20 purchasers. Annual amount, £1,574 7s. 1d. Purchase-money, £39,368 18s. 1d. The price obtained was slightly above twenty-five years purchase of the annual amount of the rents.

Perpetuity
rents unsold.

The annual amount of the 893 Perpetuity Rents unsold at the beginning of this year was £62,896.

Renewable leaseholds.

(c.) Renewable Leaseholds.

Sixty-two renewable leaseholds and leaseholds dealt with as renewable were sold. The annual rents and renewal fines of these leaseholds amounted to £1,837; and the purchase-money to £52,296. The purchase-money, however, included in most cases the arrears of fines due, so that the figures above given do not show the number of years purchase of the annual value of this property which was received. The property was, in fact, sold for about twenty-eight and a half years purchase of the annual rents and fines.

There were 62 holdings of this class still to be disposed of at the beginning of this year.

Sale of glebe-houses and mensal lands.

II.—SALE OF UNTENANTED LANDS, &c.

(a.) Glebe-Houses and Mensal Lands, sold to The Representative Church Body.

One hundred and twenty-one glebe-houses, with the mensal lands decided to be necessary for the convenient enjoyment of each house, were vested in The Representative Church Body, pursuant to the 27th and 28th sections of "The Irish Church Act, 1869," subject to £962 14s. 4d. head rent, for the sum of £51,948 7s. 8d.

There remained 106 glebes to be disposed of. In 56 of these cases the original incumbents were still in possession, not having commuted their life interests in their lands.

Sale of residues of men-sal lands.

(b.) Residues of Mensal Lands excluded from sales to The Representative Church Body.

Mensal lands decided to be unnecessary for the convenient enjoyment of the adjoining glebe-houses, of the annual value of £1,187 11s. 5d., were sold for £34,456. The average price was 29 years purchase of the annual value of the lands.

Sale and conversion of tithe rent-charge.

III.—SALE AND CONVERSION OF TITHE RENT-CHARGE.

During the year tithe rent-charge of the annual amount of £2,416 5s. 10d. was sold for £51,948 in cash, and tithe rent-charge of the annual amount of £14,634 was converted into terminable annuities.

The annual amount of tithe rent-charge still unsold, and unconverted was at the beginning of this year £200,834.

Summary of sales.

IV.—COLLECTION OF REVENUE AND PURCHASE-MONEY.

Summary of Sales.

During the past year we sold property to the amount of £1,000,372; of this sum £409,150 was paid in cash, and £591,222 secured by mortgage. A statement giving the particulars of the sales of property during the whole period of the Commission, and also a schedule of purchasers of lands, held under yearly tenures or terminable leases, during 1878, will be found in the appendix.

Summary of receipts.

Summary of Receipts.

The total amount of our receipts in cash for the year was £1,082,182; of which sum £400,150 was purchase-money in respect of sales effected during the year.

Arrears of Revenue.

Arrears.

There was a reduction in the amount of arrears of £12,587 on the 31st December, 1878, as compared with the 31st December, 1877.

Appendix
page 13.

V. PAYMENT OF ANNUITANTS.

Annuity.

The annuitants on our books were reduced during the year by deaths and commutations from 362 to 344. The amount of the annuities payable on the 1st January, 1878, was £21,826 9s. 2d., and on the 1st January, 1879, £19,123 18s. 4d.

VI.—DISCHARGE OF LIABILITIES.

Discharge of liabilities.

During the past year we paid to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, £700,000 in repayment of advances, and £238,025 for interest; total, £938,025. The amount of our debt to those Commissioners at 31st December, 1878, was £6,500,000 which has been further reduced by a payment of £400,000, on 31st January, 1879, to £6,100,000, at the date of this report.

"The Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1878."

Intermediate
Education
Grant.

The 8th section of this Act (41 and 42 Vic. cap. 65), passed in the last Session of Parliament, required us to provide for the use of The Intermediate Education Board for Ireland, "either in cash or in securities, or rent-charges of an equivalent value, such amount not exceeding in the whole One Million of Pounds sterling, as the Board shall estimate to be required for the purposes of this Act."

On the 26th November last we were furnished with a copy of a resolution adopted by the Intermediate Education Board, estimating the sum of One Million to be required for the purposes of the said Act.

In order to meet this demand we have issued ten debentures for £100,000 each, guaranteed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the 8th section of the said Act, bearing interest at £3 5s. per cent. per annum (that is £32,500 a year) as securities to the Intermediate Education Board. These debentures will be redeemable in eighteen years, or as soon as the advances made to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt have been repaid, which will probably be in 1894.

The Surplus.

The Surplus.

The issue of the debentures to the Intermediate Education Board, the amount secured by which will be paid out of the surplus, naturally calls attention to the amount of the surplus itself.

We accordingly reprint, in the Appendix to this Report, the estimate which we made of it in 1877.

Appendix

We have no doubt that at the conclusion of the present year's business that estimate will be found to have been correct, and that the Church Estate being worth about £12,000,000, and the charge on it being about £6,000,000, the surplus will be in round numbers £6,000,000.

We estimated in 1877 that the complete extinction of the debt due to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt would be accomplished in 1893.

The payment of £32,500 a year (interest) to the Intermediate Education Board will delay the final discharge of this liability till 1894; and in that year, according to our estimate as given in the Appendix, if no further burdens are laid on the Estate in the meantime, it will be worth ten millions and a half, subject to a debt of one million to the Intermediate Education Board.

Miscellaneous business—
Expenses of Commission.

VII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Expenses of Commission.

The total expense of the Commission for the past year—including legal branch, £3,938—was £25,070.

We received during the year £3,530 for legal costs and fees. Setting these receipts against the expenses above given, the entire cost of the Commission was £21,540.

Churches,
&c.

Churches, School-houses, and Burial Grounds.

We completed the investigation of the applications made by The Representative Church Body for churches, school-houses, and burial grounds, and made a vesting order in reference thereto, in pursuance of the 25th and 26th sections of "The Irish Church Act, 1869."

A copy of this order, with a schedule of the churches vested, 1,628 in number, will be found in the appendix.

We have drawn up a schedule of all the burial grounds, 2,100 in number, which have been vested by separate orders in the Guardians of the several Poor Law Unions in Ireland; and also schedules of burial grounds situate in private demesnes which either have been vested by us, by direction of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in the owners of such demesnes, or await such direction.

These schedules will be found in the appendix.

APPENDIX No 7.

ESTIMATE OF THE SURPLUS WHICH MAY BE EXPECTED TO BE AT THE DISPOSAL OF PARLIAMENT.

[This estimate is a reprint of Part II. of Report of Commissioners for the year 1873, presented to Parliament in 1877.]

We have now advanced so far in realising the property vested in us by the Irish Church Act that we are able to form a tolerably accurate estimate of the surplus which will remain to be applied as Parliament may direct, under the provisions of the 68th section of that Act. We find that, owing to the price at which we have sold the lands being larger than was expected, and also to the delay from various circumstances, impossible to foresee, which has taken place in disposing of the property generally, the amount of surplus will be considerably greater than we anticipated in 1874, as our capital liabilities have been met more largely out of income, and less out of purchase-money than we or could have been then calculated. It must be borne in mind when the "surplus" is mentioned that the provisions of the Irish Church Act are such that the surplus cannot consist of a capital sum, lying to our credit in a bank. It must necessarily be an annual revenue composed both of terminable annuities and also, as will be seen, of a considerable sum payable annually for ever.

In order to state the surplus as a capital sum it will be requisite to make a calculation, capitalising the annual revenues, whether such revenues be terminable or perpetual.

Before proceeding further, however, we desire to guard ourselves carefully against being understood to guarantee that the actual surplus shall agree precisely with our estimate.

There is still about one and a quarter millions worth of land to be sold; and though in our calculation we take the price that we shall receive for it at only twenty years' purchase of the rental, it is of course possible, as some of the lands are very badly circumstanced, that that amount may not be realized.

Another contingency that may slightly derange our calculations is that during the next two years a large number of tithe rent-charge payers who have not converted their perpetual liabilities into terminable annuities, may come forward and do so. We do not expect that they will, and we shall assume in our estimate that they will not, as it is unlikely that having allowed six years to elapse without availing themselves of the facilities for conversion afforded to them, they will now consider it for their interest to do so.

Neither do we anticipate that many more of the perpetuity rents will be sold. In the case of the description of property, as well as in that of the tithe rent-charge remaining unconverted into terminable annuities, we shall take for granted that no further purchases of any importance will be made. It is rather for the public advantage that there should be none; but if there be, our estimate, as we have said, will not be materially affected.

With these preliminary observations, we shall now give the details necessary to show how the amount of the probable surplus is arrived at.

The total sum necessary for the compensation of life interests, and for carrying out the other provisions of the Irish Church Act, was £11,180,000. Of this amount we estimate that we shall have paid off at the end of 1879, £4,755,000; and that there will then remain a liability of £6,425,000; namely, £6,200,000 to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and a capital charge of about £225,000 in respect of annuities and pensioners.

The whole liability at the end of 1879 being thus calculated to be £6,425,000, the full amount of the property charged with it must next be stated.

The annual revenue of the Commission will at that time, as nearly as we can estimate it, be as follows:—

Tithe rent-charge (unconverted and permanent),	215,000
Do. do. converted into Terminable annuities,	162,000
Perpetuity rents,	67,000
Terminable land annuities,	129,000
Interest on purchase-money standing out on mortgage,	30,000
Estimated average annual receipt in reduction of charges on mortgaged lands,	15,000
	<hr/>
	618,000
Deduct Life annuities and pensions,	25,000
Net annual revenue (1879), without allowing for collection and future management, &c., &c.,	£593,000

If the whole of these annual receipts, after providing for the cost of management, be devoted to the liquidation of the debt, then in 1893 the debt will be extinguished.

The annual revenue remaining payable in 1893 will be, according to our estimate, as follows:—

	£
Tithe rent-charge (permanent),	215,000
Do. do. Terminable annuities,	163,000
Perpetuity rents,	67,000
Terminable land annuities,	129,000
Interest on purchase-money standing out on mortgage,	31,000
Estimated average annual receipt in redemption of charges on mortgaged lands,	15,000
	<hr/>
	£690,000

And as the debt will, on the condition mentioned, be then extinguished, the surplus in 1893 will be the whole capital value of the then existing annual revenue of £600,000.

This value will be—

	£
Permanent tithe rent-charge (£215,000, valued at 24 years' purchase),	4,837,500
Do. do. terminable annuities, £153,000, 31 years to run, valued at 187 years' purchase,	2,861,100
Perpetuity rents, £67,000 (25 years' purchase),	1,675,000
Terminable land annuities, £129,000 (5 years to run), valued at 43 years' purchase,	580,500
Purchase-money standing out on mortgage in 1879, £750,000, less 14 years' probable receipt at £15,000 a year (£210,000),	540,000
	£10,494,100

If the surplus be calculated at the end of 1879 the result will be different.

The capital value of the gross annual revenue of £618,000 in 1879, will, at the end of that year, be—

	£
Tithe rent-charge, permanent, £215,000, valued at 23 years' purchase,	4,837,500
Do. do. terminable annuities (long), £153,000, 45 years to run, valued at 250 years' purchase,	3,442,500
Tithe rent-charge, terminable annuities (short), £9,000, 14 years to run, valued at 109 years' purchase,	98,100
Perpetuity rents, £67,000 (25 years' purchase),	1,675,000
Terminable land annuities, £129,000, 19 years to run, valued at 131 years' purchase,	1,689,500
Purchase-money (estimated) that will remain standing out on mortgage in 1870,	750,000
	£12,493,000

But from this sum must be deducted the liabilities, amounting to £6,425,000, to which the property will be subject in 1879, as already explained.

The remainder (£6,068,000) will be approximately the capital value of the surplus at the end of the present Commission.

The reason of the difference in the surplus when calculated in 1893 and in 1879 is this—

Though the annual instalments of the terminable annuities are composed of both interest (that is, income) and capital, the greater portion of the annual receipts will represent income, not capital.

The result is, that the liquidation of the debt between 1879 and 1893 will be effected chiefly by income, and that consequently during that period the amount of capital applied to paying off the debt will only be about £2,000,000; the annual income, as distinguished from capital, liquidating debt will only fall from £12,493,000 to £10,494,100, nearly the whole diminution, of course, the property will only fall from £12,493,000 to £10,494,100, nearly the whole diminution, of course, the property will only fall from £12,493,000 to £10,494,100, nearly the whole diminution, of course, the property will only fall from £12,493,000 to £10,494,100, nearly the whole diminution, of course, the property will also, it is calculated, be lessened by annual receipts in reduction of the charges on the property mortgaged.

Reverting to the surplus of six millions in 1879, as possessing a more practical interest than the remote ten and a half millions of 1883, it may be useful to point out the various modes in which the smaller but nearer sum may then be made available for public purposes by postponing or prolonging the liquidation of the principal of the debt due to the Government.

1. Should a large capital sum be required for any special object, the property being worth twelve and a half millions, and the charge on it being only six and a half millions, Parliament might safely sanction a further advance of public money on the security of the estate.

2. It might be arranged that the interest only on the debt (£6,200,000) in 1879 to the National Debt Commissioners should be paid. This would absorb about £319,000 a year out of an annual income of £393,000, leaving a balance of about £374,000 to be disposed of as the Legislature might think fit.

3. An Annual sum of £393,000 might be set apart for the redemption of the debt with interest. This amount, if permanent, would be sufficient to discharge both principal and interest in twenty-three and a half years; but as after nineteen years the terminable land annuities will expire, and the annual receipts will then diminish, the period for redemption must be extended to twenty-five years. If this plan were adopted, £390,000 a year would, from 1880 to 1904, be at the disposal of Parliament for the benefit of the country.

After 1904, the whole revenue would be available for public purposes, and the annual receipts would then be about £470,000. This revenue would continue until 1924, when the terminable Tithe Rent-charge Annuities will expire. There would then remain a permanent unencumbered income of about £250,000 a year.
